

REMARKS

Applicant's counsel thanks the Examiner for the careful consideration given the application and for the courteous telephone interview conducted on November 10, 2009 wherein the participants were Examiner Hao Fu, S.P.E. Hani Kazimi, Applicant's counsel John P. Murtaugh, Applicant's Italian attorney Matteo Baroni and the inventor. During the telephone interview, Applicant explained the details of the invention and some of the unique features of Applicant's invention. Applicant also explained details of the proposed amendments to claim 35 and how they were inventive and non-obvious. The Examiners suggested adding the formulas to the claims, that is, formulas from page 5 of the application. Applicant has now done as the Examiners suggested. During the interview, the Examiners also suggested to change "Memory Block" to "memory", to change "Processor Block" to "processor", etc., in order to more positively recite the computer hardware components. Applicant has amended the claims accordingly. Support for these changes can be found at page 2, third paragraph and at page 13, second paragraph of the International application as published. During the interview, the Examiners also suggested to change "adapted" to "configured" to more positively recite structural components; applicant has amended the claims accordingly.

The Reiteration Block has been deleted from claim 35 since it is not believed to be a necessary limitation for the main claim; in new claim 40, a reiteration function carried out by the processor has been included.

It is believed that with all of these changes, the claims now overcome all of the concerns expressed by the Examiner in the Office action; in addition, Applicant has made the changes requested by the Examiners during the interview.

Accordingly, it is believed that the claims as now presented overcome all the concerns expressed by the Examiners and are now in condition for allowance, which is respectfully requested.
